And More

Our mission is to provide Public Transportation to all people regardless of physical limitations, age or economic situation.

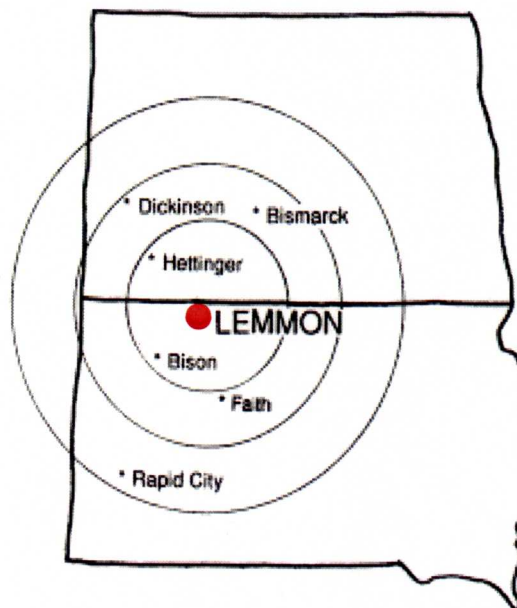

Furthermore, our goal is to contribute towards a community where no person is restricted from interacting with others due to lack of transportation.

This transit agency provides services without regard to race, color, gender, religion, national origin, age or disability. For more information: call 374-3189.

To request more information or to file a discrimination complaint, contact this transit agency or South Dakota Department of Transportation at (605) 773-3574.
